

Organization Name	Sichuan Academy of Social Sciences
Website	http://www.sss.net.cn
Type	Research; Various Fields
Location	Chengdu
Intern Capacity	Up to 5; Application Required
Description	Since its founding in 1978, Sichuan Academy of Social Sciences has been renowned as one of China's leading comprehensive social science research institutions. It has 15 affiliated institutes undertaking research in various fields including economics, sociology, philosophy and information science.
Possible Research Topics	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Sustainable economic development models for Sichuan Province 2. The transformation of old industry structure to energy efficient models 3. The aging population and the direction for the services for the elderly 4. Multinationals business development in Sichuan: Success stories and lessons learned 5. How to capitalize on Chengdu's unique cultural heritage to develop its cultural industry 6. The Sichuan cuisine and its impact on the economy 7. The history of Tea Road and the Southern Silk Route and their impact on the socio-economic development in the region 8. Sichuan's ancient irrigation system and management 9. The role of tea, liquor and wine in Sichuan's cultural development 10. Suggestions and recommendations on Chengdu's cultural image development 11. Corporate Social Responsibility development for multinationals and local enterprise in Sichuan 12. Post Wenchuan Earthquake reconstruction 13. Western Sichuan minority culture preservation and direction 14. Sichuan Minority nationality cultural tourism development 15. Social impact of migrant worker movement on local villages
Format (hours/days per week, flexibility, etc.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 8 hours per week; • Short-term or Summer;