

The G-MEO Campus Ambassador Program

The Campus Ambassador Position: Each year, G-MEO hires enthusiastic G-MEO program alumni and non-alumni to work as our “campus ambassadors.” Campus Ambassadors (CA’s) are current students at a G-MEO partner school who assist G-MEO in our efforts to reach out to, engage with, and eventually enroll, qualified students into our programs. As a campus ambassador, you will play a key role that is one part recruiter and one part brand ambassador, while working closely with your school’s G-MEO Account Executive (AE) to achieve target recruitment goals.

Attributes of a Great CA: The Campus Ambassador position is a great fit for G-MEO program alumni, as well as other students interested in international education, study abroad, business, sales, marketing, communications or related fields. The requirements of the position best align with students who are:

- Outgoing, confident, and comfortable with public speaking since you’ll be interacting frequently with faculty and students.
- Organized and reliable, since we expect you to perform many tasks unsupervised and be responsive to your AE’s directions.
- Flexible, because being a campus ambassador does entail devoting time during the day or evening to help with recruitment events or recruitment follow up.
- Enthusiastic about your experiences studying abroad in China with G-MEO, or studying abroad in another program.

Position Requirements:

- Must be a current college or University student in good academic standing.
- Must be available to devote up to 6 hours/week to Campus Ambassador work.
- Must have reliable internet and/or cell-phone service.

About G-MEO: G-MEO (Global Maximum Educational Opportunities Inc.,) is a social enterprise dedicated to promoting international education through unique study and intern abroad experiences in China. G-MEO’s flagship Chengdu American Center for Study Abroad, located in the historic, dynamic, culturally diverse city of Chengdu, offers American college students, as well as international students studying in America, a wide range of courses, taught in English, across seven academic fields, such as international business, criminal justice, and China Studies, along with Mandarin language training courses, and internships with Fortune 500 companies, tech. start-ups, law firms, world-class hotel chains, K-12 schools, and other organizations. Students enrolling in G-MEO programs can stay on track to graduate, gain valuable intercultural work experiences, travel, and have lots of fun! G-MEO’s popular study abroad programs in China, including Fall, Spring, and summer sessions, have welcomed more than 200 students over the last four years.